The Junior Ranger Program

Introduction to the Junior Ranger Program

Many National Park Service sites offer a Junior Ranger Program for young visitors. The Junior Ranger Program helps visitors explore an NPS site and discover its significance. The rewards include a better understanding of what makes the site unique, as well as a Junior Ranger badge.

Becoming a Junior Ranger

At Jefferson National Expansion Memorial, you can earn your Junior Ranger badge at either the Old Courthouse or at the Museum of Westward Expansion under the Gateway Arch. This booklet will help you earn your Junior Ranger badge at the Old Courthouse. Simply do the following:

- 1. Use this booklet to guide yourself through the Old Courthouse. Parents or older readers can read directions and write answers for pre-readers.
- 2. Complete the activities on pages 2-8 according to your age. Use the following symbols as a guide.

Ages 5-7

Ages 8-10

Ages 11-13

3. Show your completed activity booklet to the Ranger or volunteer in the Rotunda. He or she will award your Junior Ranger badge. You can also purchase a Junior Ranger patch at the Old Courthouse giftshop.

The Old Courthouse Building

Halls of Justice 🔮 👸

The Old Courthouse has four wings laid out around a room called a rotunda. During the 1800s, the rotunda served as a public forum for political speeches, debates and meetings. Each wing housed courtrooms and offices where people resolved legal disputes, applied for licenses and paid taxes. Use the map below to visit each wing and answer the guestions on page 4.

Halls of Justice

Rotunda

• Walk to the center of the rotunda, stand on the round stone and say your name loudly. What do you notice?

• Find a painting that symbolizes "justice." How does the painting portray justice? Why would justice be important in this building?

• This rotunda is used by many people to exercise their freedom of speech. Write down something about which you feel strongly and speak on it for 30 seconds, using the rotunda as a forum.

South Wing

• Find a room with a checkerboard floor. Mark it on the diagram on page 3 with an "X."

West Wing

• Who filed a lawsuit here in 1846? Why was it important?

North Wing

- Find an example of wood work that is painted on.
- Find an area under the stairs that was an old office.
- Look out the window opposite the stairs. What do you see?

East Wing

• Find a stairwell to the second floor. Go upstairs to the courtooms.

Courtrooms

Order in the Court

On the second floor, courtrooms 4 and 13 are restored to look like courtrooms used between 1850 and 1903. Visit both courtrooms to complete the questions and activities on pages 5 and 6.

Why do you think the judge's bench is so high?

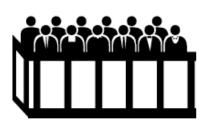

How would it feel to sit there?

Who sits at the two tables in the middle of the room?

What would it feel like to sit there?

How many chairs are set aside for the jury?

What is a juror's job in the courtroom?

While standing in the courtroom, say the words, "Hear ye, hear ye." Why do you suppose the sound carries so well?

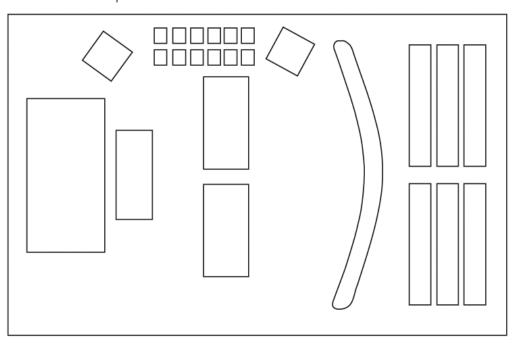

Order in the Court 🥟 🦃 👸

Match the terms with the correct location in the courtroom diagram. Write the number of each term in the correct space.

1. Bailiff: law enforcement officer who has custody of a prisoner during a trial a rail enclosing part of the courtroom 2. The Bar:

3. Court Clerk: records testimony and courtroom proceedings; also swears in the jury and witnesses

4. Gallery: area where visitors are seated oversees courtroom proceedings to ensure law is applied fairly 5. Judge:

selected group of citizens who hear testimony, review evidence and reach a 6. Jury:

verdict in a trial

represents client in defending or prosecuting legal matters 7. Lawyer:

provides testimony based on personal or professional experience 8. Witness:

St. Louis Homes

Visit the exhibit room, The Early Years. Find the model of the French colonial house and the exhibit that shows a French colonial house. Many homes in colonial St. Louis looked this way.

- 1. Make a list, or draw some of the things that were in a colonial St. Louis home.
- 2. What is one thing that is similar to your house? What is one thing that is different?
- 3. Find a picture in the gallery of someone who may have lived in a colonial St. Louis home.

Draw their face in the oval at right:

Visit the galleries, Becoming a City and Entering the Twentieth Century.
